Editorial and Ethical Guidelines

Editorial board of Ethnologia Actualis prefers contributions with original theoretical and methodological approach, innovative knowledge or those which present up-to-date research results in the fields of social and cultural anthropology, area studies and religious studies.

Editorial board confirms that:

- ✓ It is against research ethics to submit a manuscript which was previously published in a different journal or in a different language,
- ✓ Submitted manuscript must be an original result of author's research,
- ✓ Editorial board has absolutely no tolerance for plagiarism. Any plagiarized article will be considered a breach of publication ethics and authors will be discouraged from future submissions,
- ✓ Longer contributions which exceed 12.000 words will not be accepted,
- ✓ All articles must be proofread prior to submission. Any article that will not meet this criterion will be returned to its author,
- ✓ Any information regarding the reviewing process remain confidential,
- ✓ It will not accept any conflict of interests in reviewing and publication process,
- ✓ Each manuscritpt is submitted to peer review by two independent experts in the field,
- ✓ The experts are chosen by the editorial board,

- ✓ The reviewing process will not exceed 5-6 weeks after the submission of the article,
- ✓ If necessary, the authors will have 2-3 weeks to revise their manuscripts,
- ✓ Any errors in manuscripts after the submission should be immediately reported to the main editors,
- ✓ It bears a full responsibility for the selection of contributions and reviewers,
- ✓ It will not discriminate the author of the manuscript,
- ✓ The journal does not have article processing charges (APCs) nor article submission charges.
