Information for the authors

- In presenting ideas on a topic, all manuscripts proposed for publishing should be concise and include an even number of pages. We strongly recommend authors to limit to 10 pages (including References, the Title and Abstract in English).
- Submitted papers will be subjected to a blind peer-review process with proficient members of the international academic community active in the field of artistic education.
- Doesn't have pay article processing charges (APC) for evaluation of the articles in Review of Artistic Education.
- You can find below the scientific criteria used in the peer – review process. The whole responsibility for the accuracy of the empirical support, analysis and interpretation of data, as well as for the accuracy of the text and English language command, belong entirely to the authors.
- Our journal has an article submission charge of 70 euro per article for publication to Sciendo.
- Submission of the manuscript implies that it is not under consideration for a publication elsewhere.
